Your subscription to PACT is used for the following: (1) The service of receiving the newsletter including printing and postage costs for those wishing to receive it by post. (2) Other (small) costs associated with running our subscription service and the bank account. (3) The subsidising of some social events (e.g. recently the new members/resources swap social and the Christmas party). (4) A discretionary fund for occasional unavoidable shortfalls to organisers of events in the PACT newsletter - anyone can apply for this through the treasurer (contact details in the newsletter).
